Indoor Winter Market

North Union Farmers Market
13207 & 13209 Shaker Square

9am to noon

Saturdays, January 7 – March 24, 2012

From January through March, North Union Farmers Market will return to Shaker Square for our tenth winter season. The market will be held in the two rooms between Dewey's Coffee House and CVS Pharmacy with free parking behind the building. Market hours are 9am to Noon on Saturdays from January 7th until March 24th, 2012.

Products to look forward to include antibiotic- and hormone-free beef, pork, and poultry and dairy products, organic maple syrup, honey, farm-fresh eggs, cheeses, winter greens, herbs, apples, potatoes, lettuces, organic grains, specialty baked goods, and root vegetables. Over 35 farmers, bakers and artists will participate at the market through the winter months.

Meet and greet with friends and neighbors, support your local economy - come visit our Indoor Winter Farmers Market and enjoy the magnificence of Ohio produce and products!

North Union Farmers Market is proud to announce that we will be accepting SNAP (Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program) Cards at the Indoor Winter Market. SNAP recipients may bring their Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) cards to the farmers market and obtain tokens which may be used to purchase fresh, local vegetables, fruits, dairy products, meat products, honey, preserves, baked goods and much more. SNAP recipients should first visit the "Market Information" table to receive tokens before purchasing items.

North Union Farmers Market Indoor Winter Market opens on Saturday, January 7 from 9am to Noon, rain or shine. It continues every Saturday through March 24, 2012 supplying locally grown fresh produce from Ohio farmers.

North Union Farmers Market is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization whose mission is to champion the local foods of Northeast Ohio and promote their environmental, economic and health benefits by connecting certified producers with consumers through a network of markets.
